REACH for a Book Program:

Since 2007, the REACH for a Book program has supported nearly 20,000 students in the Denver Public School system with their reading goals. The program focuses on improving reading skills by providing incentives and rewards for participating students. Each student is encouraged to read 100 minutes a week outside of school. Top Readers from participating schools are honored at a luncheon hosted by Karl Mecklenburg and the REACH Foundation at INVESCO Field at Mile High.
